Kia Ora Whanau

As the colder months are starting to arrive and I am reminded almost daily of how blessed I am. Blessed to live in a dry warm home, blessed to have food on the table and a car to get me where I need to go. Blessed to have whanau and friends who love and support me and journey through life - both the good times and the challenging. I am reminded that not everyone lives in this privilege. Daily we see people through our doors who do not live with what so many of us take for granted.

Isaiah 58 V 7 says this "Share your food with the hungry, and give shelter to the homeless. Give clothes to those who need them, and do not hide from relatives who need your help." What a challenge this is to me and I hope all of us. I wonder what God might encourage us to do to show love and compassion to those in need as we reflect on that verse.

Praying God's abundant blessings on you and your whanau right now.

What is required is provision of morning tea, set up of morning tea, serving of drinks, and clean up. You can be as creative as you like – you can bake or buy biscuits from the supermarket. You could shake things up and serve fruit and vege sticks 😊 If you're keen to be involved please either talk to Jeannine, text her on

AWAKEN SERVICE

5PM | SUNDAY 5 MAY | MIRAMAR CORPS

Join us for worship, teaching, prayer and fellowship

EPHESIANS 5v 13 - 20 But everything exposed by the light becomes visible—and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. 14 This is why it is said:

“Wake up, sleeper,
rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”

15 Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, 16 making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is. 18 Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord, 20 always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
