"Opportunities to serve"

We are looking for people who would be keen to serve in the kitchen and take a turn on morning tea roster. What is required is provision of morning tea, set up of morning tea, serving of drinks, and clean up. You can be as creative as you like – you can bake or buy biscuits from the supermarket. You could shake things up and serve fruit and vege sticks 😊 If you're keen to be involved please either talk to Jeannine, text her on 021517195 or email on Jeannine.serevi@salvationarmy.org.nz

Thanks Whanau

Online Spiritual Retreat Days

Reflect, Refresh, Refuel

Tuesday 11th June
Saturday 7th September
Friday 18th October

Time: 10am - 3pm
Where: A place of your choice

In Mark 6:31 Jesus invites the disciples to "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest." You are invited to spend a day just where you are, to "come aside" with Jesus – to listen, to connect with God to be refreshed and refueled.

The day will start with others online for prayer, reflection and teaching before disconnecting from technology to practice what we have heard, in order to intentionally connect with God. A short time of prayer together will conclude the day of retreat.

To register and receive the online meeting invitation and relevant information for the day please email Candy.Hull@salvationarmy.org.nz

This is open to everyone connected with The Salvation Army

Precious Packages Samoa

Gift packs for babies needing hospital care.

This year, our Territory is joining together to provide life-saving essentials for premature and newborn babies in Samoa.

Families with babies that need hospital care face incredible hardship in Samoa, at a time that is already distressing. But just a few essentials can be literally life-saving.

This is where we come in! This year, we're fundraising for care packs that will go towards out most precious packages: our babies.

The initiative was sparked when a Samoan Corps family had a baby born at 28 weeks.

The corps rallied around the family, but it was an eye-opener for Regional Leader Captain Julie Turner. 'Many families in the NICU (Newborn Intensive Care Unit) are really suffering. Our family's baby was so little, their hand was smaller than my thumb. They hadn't developed a suckling reflex, so premature formula was essential. However, parents have to bear this cost, and just one tin costs almost a week's wages.

Premmie nappies are hard to find, and they also cost almost a week's wage.

'...just one tin of formula costs almost a week's wages.'

'It's not uncommon for one parent to have to leave their job because of childcare needs, while the other parent is at hospital full-time. If no childcare is available, the other children may need to stay in the hospital too. Our people are very resilient, and they won't complain about sleeping on the floor. But I could see that simply providing a sleeping mat, would make the world of difference,' reflects Julie. 'Even something as simple as distilled water can really help a breast-feeding mother.'

The Samoan corps were able to support their family and they had a wonderful outcome: their precious package is now thriving, and at four months old was recently dedicated at the corps.
